

Academy of Music and Sound Intent Statement for RSL Courses

The intention of delivering the RSL courses for Music Practitioners is that the course leads to:

- learners growing in confidence performing on their instrument or with music technology,
- learners get work as a self-employment musician or music technologist and/or learners progress to HE courses.

The progress towards achieving these aspirations will be seen in the learner's ILP, the student voice and destination data.